

Centennial Celebration

October 12 & 13, 2012

Independence Courthouse Turns 100 Years Old!

Come celebrate the history of Kenton County as the Independence Courthouse turns 100 years old. The event is free to the public and will feature ongoing tours of the historic Courthouse, including the seldom seen second floor, along with local history exhibits. Additional events will include craft vendors, the Independence Farmers' Market, a veteran's presentation, antique cars, musical entertainment and more! A free shuttle bus and parking located at St. Cecilia Church will be provided. The Kenton County Fiscal Court, Kenton County Clerk, Kenton Circuit Clerk, Kenton County Sheriff, and City of Independence are hosting the event.

Schedule of Events

Friday 5:00 – 8:00 PM

Guided tours of the Courthouse, informational displays from the Kenton County Clerks Office and historical information from the Kenton County Public Library.

Saturday 9:00AM – 5:00PM

9:00AM – Ongoing Courthouse tours, vendor booths and Independence Farmers' Market opens for the day. Special edition prints of the Courthouse by local artist Tom Gaither will be available for purchase.

10:00AM – Simon Kenton Choir performs

11:00AM – 1:00 PM – Noyz Boyz Band performs

1:00PM – Centennial Celebration Ceremony Presentation will include Dennis Flerlage playing the National Anthem and My Old Kentucky Home; Proclamation presentation by Kenton County Judge/Executive Steve Arlinghaus and local Mayors; History of Courthouse by Gailen Bridges; Introduction of Centenarians

2:00PM – 4:00PM – Cave Mountain Band

A Special Thanks to our Corporate Sponsors!

For More Information Contact Kenton County Fiscal Court at 392-1400